[1913]

My dear Miss Whitney.

How can I thank you enough for your dear, lovely and loving letter! I have thought about you a great deal and made many plans to go to see you, plans which have all come to naught. While I write I remember my first efforts at round hand in the copy books in the happy school life when I was seven. You are far and away the youngest of us all, tho'

it is hard to realize that "Ting Liz" is past seventy. I am wondering if any are now living except yourself and the three Silsbees. We decided that it was best to remain in Milton this winter & we let both our Boston houses and I have sold mine to be delivered in June.
Katalie is with me now and sends you her earnest thanks with mine. Fred & Gertrude are in California. I shall go to see you before very long.

Your ever affectionate

Mary E. Whitwell
